AUGUST 7, 1876. EDITOR OF REPUBLICAN: We had refreshing shower of rain a few this since and are enjoying fair weather. The corn crop in this section of the country is considerably larger than t was last season, and looks fine on the majority of farms. The generality of the people expect to be bountifully supplied with feed for their stock during the coming winter.

The wheat crop is considerably better than the people had estimated. Mr. Lewis Wright's wheat crop. which consisted of about 70 acres. made an average yield of about 22 bushels per acre.

The Sabbath School Concert at Bedord Chapel, which is a well constructed church, situated about five miles from Savannah, took place on last Sabbath. People came from all directions-"from the four corners of the earth." The School was honored by the presence of some of the worthy eitizens of Savannah. On behelding the innumerable bost, one might have exclaimed, "They come! they come and still they come!" The general supposition is, that there were not less than four hundred persons pres ent. Mr. Sargent, of Savannah, led in Music. Mr. Earls delivered quite n effective discourse to the children. would have had his legs crushed between the rail and wheels. As it was, he escaped with only the bruises caused by the fall, and was considerably more scared than burt.

James H. Dyer gave us a call on Monday and exhibited some specimens of gold and silver ore and also of coal. These specimens were obtained by him on the John Wilson 500 yards excellent quality farm in Lincoln township. For two years Mr. Dyer has been prospecting for these minerals, has spent not only time but money in so doing. Now he has abundant evidence of the existence of very rich lands both of gold and silver, and also of excellent coal, He has sent specimens of the silver ere to Georgetown, Colorado, and had it assayed, and has returns stating that its yield in silver is $45 30 to the ton. The gold ore, of which not less than $1,500 to the ton, if not more. Having made the discovery, being able to prove beyond doubt ills to which human flesh is unfortunately heir, it is not too much tor his hearers to look to the person of the seller for evidence of the efficacy of his physic. If he have a clear skin, a powerful frame, and the flush of health on his check, they may be justified in accepting, at least, a portion of his declarations as traths. But if, on the contrary, his color be bad, his form bent, his step lack vigor, his voice lack animation, and his tout ensemble show that he is not enjoying the health he promises to others, none can blame his auditors if they denounce him as an impostor, and retuse, jured. on any terms, to receive the trash which he recomends as having such wonderful efficacy of cure.

As with medicine men, so with reformers. If it be not too much to ask that the vender of cure-alls should be healthy, neither is it extravagant to dehealthy, neither is it extravagant to de-mand that reformers should themselves be reformed. Preachers of purity should be holy, even as denouncers of stealing should be no thieves. But this quality, so very essential, has been en-tirely overlooked by the red-hot Democratic reformers of the present day. They have cried loudly for reform, and tell stroke. A resolution was conse-quently passed requiring the Treasury Department to furnish a detailed statement, from authentic sources, of the amounts lost to the Government by the defalcations of the officials under each Administration since Jackson's second term in 1832. In due time, the statistics were furnished, and with them a tabular statement showing the percentage of money lost in each $1,000 by the detalcation or dishonesty of Government officials. Thus at a glance may be comernment officials $10 55 were lost or a boy to rade and his father at first restolen. Van Buren's administration covered the term of the Florida war, and the loss per $1,000 was $21 15. This was extraordinary, even for Democratis and was greatly reduced during the administrative term of Harrison and Tyler, when the loss was $10 37. Under Polk things were better, and the loss was still further cut down to $8 34. while Taylor and Fillmore still turther reduced it to $7 64. Under Pierce the loss was even less, being $5 86, but under Buchanan it was increased to 6 98. In Lincoln's first Administration, though the coln's first Administration, though the expressible agony. His affincted parents things were better, and the loss was sail further cut down to $3 34, while Taylor and Fillmore still further reduced it to $7 64. Under Pierce the loss was even less, being $5 86, but under Buchfanan it was increased to 6 98. In Lincoln's first Administration, though the gigantie war of the Rebellion was going on, the stealing was reduced $1 41 to $1,000; while under Lincoln's second term, finished by Johnson, the deficit was still further reduced to 48 cents. The first term of Mr. Grant beheld a reduction to 40 cents, and under his second term, of every $1,000 handled by Government officere only 26 cents have been abstracted or lost.

Figures speak for themselves, and these figures loudest of all. The Democrats might have gone further for information, but could hardly have taxed worse. The denunciations for the last eight years showered on the Republican party for official defalcations have been so numerous and so indiscriminate, that many, even among Republicans, had almost begun to believe in their truth, and some such exhibit as this was necessary for the good of both parties. It is of course very embarassing for Reformers in the full heat and zoal of denouncing official corruption to discover that the defalcations which now so exits their virtuous wrath are only onechine, which he will use in threshing the gram of the farmers of that neighborhood.

Elder Trapp will hold religious services in the Wade school-house, seven miles southwest of this place on the fourth Sabbath in each month.

Mr. Montgomery, living west of town, has just finished threshing his wheat, which averaged thirty-three bushels to the acre.

At the depot, last Sunday evening, Henry Townsend tried to jump on a freight car while it was in motion, and missing his hold, was thrown between the platform and cars, with both legs across the track, and had he not got them in such a shape that the brake on the car knocked them off just before the wheels came up, he would have had his legs crushed be-

Grasshoppers in Iowa.

From the Chicago Tribane.

Accounts of grasshopper ravages in Iowa have been grossly exaggerated. Vast swarms have moved through the air, stopping at intervals to lunch off the growing crops, but nothing like wholesale devastation has taken place. The wheat crop is said to be fully an average one, and the prospect for corn has never been better.

Alabama Election Returns MONTGOMERY, August 8.- Returns montgomery, August 8.— Returns continue to show large Democratic gains. Out of sixty-five counties every one will give a Democratic majority except six or seven. The Democrats will have 27 out of 33 Senators and at least 80 out of 100 Representatives.

A SHOCKING AFFAIR. A Chilk's Face Lacerated by a Ferocious Dog.

After the Journal had gone to press last week we learned of a most shocking affair that occurred a few days pre-vious. In the family of Mr. Nash Jenthat the minerals named are here, the question now is, will men of capital invest in the development of the mines? Without doubt, the prospect is very flattering for a rich harvest for those who may invest. Some of our men of means should investigate the day cape from the day cape from the master's but a short distance from his master's the day cape from the day cape from the master's but a short distance from his master's the day cape from our men of means should investigate the matter, and, if satisfied, take hold of the matter at once.—Patron, 3d.

THE TRAIN ROBBERS.

Confession of One of their Number. Sr. Louis August 8.—The Times has a special from Sedalia which says Hobb Keery, the train robber, was brought there from Boonville to-day, tirely overlooked by the red-hot Democratic reformers of the present day. They have cried loudly for reform, and have bitterly denounced Republicans, without in the least reflecting that therr own record in the past might be brought up, and by a little inspection made to appear in its true colors. This catastrophe, the thing above all others which the Democratis had most to dread, had at last come to pass, and for it, and the unlucky position in which they are consequently placed, they have to thank nobody but themselves.
